Bill LaBounty and Bobby Tomberlin, and Candi Carpenter

They started in their early teens, guitars in hand, each taking their own path.

Tomberlin interviewing the likes of Waylon Jennings, Jonny Cash, and Tammy Wynette to co-writing Dimond Rio's #1 country hit "One More Day";

Labounty early on, recording with RCA records to being a GRAMMY award winner with 25 BMI awards including 10, yes 10, "Milliom Performance" awards;

Candi Carpenter a songwriter, singer, and actress. Candi's amazing vocal range and power-packed delivery leave the audience screaming for more.

Theater-in-the-Round. Close - up and intimate, experience the artistry and skill of music at its finest.

Bill LaBounty

Bill recorded his first album at the age of 19 for RCA Records, followed by an album for 20 th Century Fox, and three albums for Warner/Curb records which spawned the pop hits "Never Gonna Look Back" (with James Taylor), "Livin' It Up," and "This Night Won't Last Forever." He also established himself as a songwriter for an array of other Pop and Country artists such as Patti LaBelle, Jimmy Buffet, The Judds, The Temptations, Alan Jackson, Steve Wariner, Brooks and Dunn, Steve Goodman, Phoebe Snow, Neil Diamond, Tim McGraw & Peter Cetera. His hits include Robbie Dupree's "Hot Rod Hearts," Michael Johnson's "This Night Won't Last Forever," Steve Wariner's #1's "The Weekend," "Lynda," and "I Got Dreams," the Grammy Award winning duet by Allison Kraus and Shenandoah, "Somewhere in the Vicinity of the Heart," Shenandoah's #1 "I Want To Be Loved Like That," Lonestar's "Tequila Talkin'," Brooks and Dunn's "Rock My World Little Country Girl," and Peter Cetera's "No Explanation," the end theme for the movie, Pretty Woman. To date he has had over 100 songs recorded by other artists, resulting in 25 BMI Awards, including 10 "Million Performance" Awards. Click here for Bill's web site.

Bobby Tomerlin

Bobby is a Grammy, CMA and ACM nominee. Bobby Tomberlin started in the music business at the early age of 11 as a disc jockey interviewing legends Waylon Jennings, Johnny Cash and Tammy Wynette. Mel Tillis gave Bobby his first publishing contract and since that time, Bobby has had great success co-writing the number one country and Top 5 AC single, "One More Day" recorded by Diamond Rio. Bobby also co-authored an inspirational book by the same name. Bobby also co-wrote the Top 10 single, "A Good Day To Run" recorded by Darryl Worley. Bobby's songs have also been recorded by Faith Hill, Josh Turner, Kenny Rogers, Rodney Atkins, The Oak Ridge Boys, Eddy Arnold, Joe Nichols, Jerry Lee Lewis, Terri Clark, Joe Diffie, Ty Herndon, Lee Greenwood and others. Some of Bobby's co-writers include Phil Everly, Mac Davis, Steve Wariner, Bill Anderson, Josh Turner and Brenda Lee. Bobby has been a staff writer for Mike Curb Music for the past 13 years. <http://www.myspace.com/bobbytomberlin>

Candi Carpenter

The crowds first warm up to her enchanting smile and serene beauty, then become totally enthralled by her tremendously powerful voice and magnetic stage presence. Candi Carpenter is like nothing Nashville has ever seen.

Whether she's wringing every last drop of emotion from a country music ballad, or singing her own compositions, Candi's amazing vocal range and power-packed delivery leave the audience screaming for more.

Her ever-growing list of accomplishments, and the star-studded list of country music greats with whom she's performed, seem hardly possible for some one who has just turned 19.

The incomparable Jack Greene, Grand Ole Opry legend and multiple CMA award-winner, has featured Candi on his "Yesterday and Today Show" for the last three years. As Jack & Candi have toured around the country, fans are taken down memory lane by Jack's timeless voice as he brings his multiple #1 hits to life, then treated to Candi's amazing renditions of country music's beloved standards.
